Frequently asked questions

Contents Cover

Am I covered for moving house?

Our contents insurance includes cover for your contents whilst being moved by professional removers from your existing home (provided we are already insuring your contents at this address) to your new permanent home (including temporary storage in a recognised storage depository for up to seven days).

Please review the HSBC Home Insurance policy booklet \(PDF, 287kb\) for full details of our Terms and Conditions (including exclusions) and our Summary of limits and excesses \(PDF, 32kb\).

Will you provide contents cover for students?

Provided students will return to the insured family home i.e. they do not have a permanent residence of their own, and you have selected contents cover, we automatically provide limited cover under the Contents Temporarily Removed section of the policy. If you have selected Personal Belongings cover this will extend to the student up to the limit you have selected.

For a detailed summary of what is covered please review the HSBC Home Insurance policy booklet \(PDF, 287kb\) for full details of our Terms and Conditions (including exclusions) and our Summary of limits and excesses \(PDF, 32kb\).

For more information please call our sales team 0800 744 844.

Are mobile phones covered by home insurance?

Under contents insurance we will automatically provide cover for loss of or damage to mobile phones caused by any of these events whilst in the home:

- Fire, explosion, lightning, earthquake and smoke damage
- Storm and flood damage
- Riot, civil commotion, strikes, labour and political disturbances
- Damage by malicious persons or vandals
- Collision by aircraft or other aerial devices, vehicles and animals (not including domestic pets)
- Theft or attempted theft from the home
- Falling radio and TV aerials
- Subsidence, heave or landslide
- Damage caused by falling trees or branches
- Escape of water
- Leakage of heating fuel

To cover a mobile phone against accidental damage in the home you will need to select Contents Accidental Damage cover, which is split into two elements - Limited and Extra. The Extra Accidental Damage element covers your mobile phone. Existing customers can check your Policy Schedule to find out if you have this cover included in your policy. If you would like to add this cover please call our customer service helpline on 0345 300 5898.

If you would like your mobile to be covered away from home you will need to select Personal Belongings cover and you may need to specify your mobile depending on its value.

For a detailed summary of what is covered please review the HSBC Home Insurance policy booklet

\(PDF, 287kb\) for full details of our Terms and Conditions (including exclusions) and our Summary of limits and excesses \(PDF, 32kb\).

Does home insurance cover accidental damage?

Our policy does not include accidental damage cover automatically for buildings and/or contents insurance but it is available to add to your new quote in the 'You can tailor and add to your policy below' section on the "Your quote" page.

Accidental Damage cover is made up of 2 parts - Limited Accidental Damage and Extra Accidental Damage, which are both included if you choose Accidental Damage cover on a new quote.

If you are an existing customer, you may only have Limited Accidental Damage cover (you can check your policy schedule to find out). If you would like to add Extra Accidental Damage, or remove Accidental Damage cover completely from your policy, please call us on 0345 300 5898.

Our Contents Limited Accidental Damage cover includes accidental damage to television sets (including digital and satellite receivers), DVD/video players and recorders, games consoles (not portable), home computers (not laptops), audio equipment, mirrors and fixed glass in furniture.

Contents Extra Accidental Damage covers most contents against breakages and spillages. Typical examples include:

- Spilling paint on your carpet
- Spilling coffee on your sofa or laptop
- Dropping ornaments or other breakables

Accidental Damage Cover excludes wear and tear, clothing, contact lenses, stamps, food in freezer, pedal cycles and pet damage.

Please review the HSBC Home Insurance policy booklet \(PDF, 287kb\) for full details of our Terms and Conditions (including exclusions) and our Summary of limits and excesses \(PDF, 32kb\).

Does home insurance cover contents in outbuildings?

Contents insurance provides cover of up to £3,000 for theft claims from your garage(s) or any outbuildings on your property. We will pay up to the contents sum insured for any other types of claims e.g. fire (cover limits and exclusions apply).

For further information please review the HSBC Home Insurance policy booklet \(PDF, 287kb\) for full details of our Terms and Conditions (including exclusions) and our Summary of limits and excesses \(PDF, 32kb\).

Are pedal cycles covered under home insurance?

Pedal cycles are automatically covered on your contents policy when they're kept inside your building(s) (but not in the garden).

If you want to cover your bikes away from home, including on holiday while abroad, you will need to add Pedal Cycles cover to your policy. This covers every cycle in the household up to the value of the most expensive cycle. You can select between £300 up to £2,500.

If you are a new customer you can add Pedal Cycles cover to your quote in the "Pedal cycles" section on the "Your quote" page.

If you are an existing customer you can add Pedal Cycles cover on your policy mid-term. Please call our customer service helpline on 0345 300 5898.

For a detailed summary of what is covered please review the HSBC Home Insurance policy booklet \(PDF, 287kb\) for full details of our Terms and Conditions (including exclusions) and our Summary of limits and excesses \(PDF, 32kb\).

How do I know whether my property has approved locks?

This information provides details on what we mean by approved locks.

Approved Locks are classed as;

- 1) All accessible windows and skylights have key operated locks
- 2) The main entrance door is fitted with either:
 - a lock approved to BS3621 or
 - a mortice deadlock of at least 5 levers or
 - a rim automatic deadlatch with a key-locking handle on the inside or
 - a key-operated multi-point locking system with at least three fixing points and a lock cylinder with at least five pins
- 3) Any sliding patio doors are fitted with a key-operated patio door lock mounted internally on the centre rail(s) or protection to the standard in (2) above
- 4) Any other external doors are fitted with key-operated security devices top and bottom in addition to existing locks or a lock to the standard in (2) above

How do I determine the value of my contents?

We automatically cover up to £50,000 on contents insurance on a new for old basis (except for clothing and linen).

If you would need more than £50,000 to fully replace your contents you can increase this amount by selecting "No" to the question: "HSBC offers £50,000 standard cover for contents insurance - is this enough?"

If you are a new customer please calculate the value of your contents if you were to buy these items today as our contents cover is on a new for old basis.

If you are an existing customer please remember to review the value of your contents on a regular basis to ensure you are not underinsured.

Valuables cover

We automatically provide £10,000 of cover for valuables in the home as standard. If you would need more than £10,000 to fully replace your valuables, you can increase this amount (up to a maximum of £20,000). If you need more information please call our sales team on 0800 744 844.

We consider valuables to be items such as:

- Stamp, coin or medal collections
- Pictures and other works of art
- Items of gold, silver or any other precious metal

- Jewellery, watches and furs

As standard, we'll pay up to £1,500 for a single item. If you have any individual items which are worth more than £1,500 these will need to be specified.

If you are a new customer you can specify items under the "Specified valuables" section on the "Your quote" page.

If you are an existing customer you can increase your valuable limit and/or specify item(s) on your policy mid-term. Please call our customer service helpline on 0345 300 5898.

Will you replace items on a "new for old" basis?

Cover is provided on a new for old basis (except for clothing and linen). We may choose to settle by one of the following methods:

- Replacing with new items
- Reinstating (restoring your insured items to the condition they were in before the loss; for example, by professionally cleaning soiled carpets)
- Repairing
- Payment, so that you can choose your own replacements

I have a lodger - can you give me a quote for contents insurance?

We will cover you if you have between one and six lodgers.

When completing your quote, input the total number of adults living in the property including the number of lodgers in this figure. Then input the total number of lodgers in the lodgers question. Cover limits and exclusions apply.

For a detailed summary of what is covered please review the HSBC Home Insurance policy booklet \(PDF, 287kb\) for full details of our Terms and Conditions (including exclusions) and our Summary of limits and excesses \(PDF, 32kb\).

For more information please our sales team on 0800 744 844.

What if my personal belongings are worth more than £10,000?

Our maximum sum insured for the optional cover of unspecified personal belongings is £10,000 as this should be enough to cover all the belongings that you're likely to have with you at any one time (for example, while you're on holiday).

If you are likely to need more cover please our sales team on 0800 744 844.

Is there a limit to the amount of jewellery and watches I can specify?

The maximum total amount for items you can specify online is £25,000 for items you take outside your home (Personal Belongings section) and £20,000 for Valuable items specified that you do not take outside your home.

If you wish to specify items which in total will equal more than the amounts above please call our sales team on 0800 744 844.

Are laptops covered under my home insurance policy?

Under our Contents insurance we will automatically provide cover for loss of or damage to laptops caused by any of these events whilst in the home:

- Fire, explosion, lightning, earthquake and smoke damage
- Storm and flood damage
- Riot, civil commotion, strikes, labour and political disturbances
- Damage by malicious persons or vandals
- Collision by aircraft or other aerial devices, vehicles and animals (not including domestic pets)
- Theft or attempted theft from the home
- Falling radio and TV aerials
- Subsidence, heave or landslide
- Damage caused by falling trees or branches
- Escape of water
- Leakage of heating fuel

To cover a laptop against accidental damage in the home you will need to select Contents Accidental Damage cover, which is split into two elements - Limited and Extra. The Extra Accidental Damage element covers your laptop. Existing customers can check your Policy Schedule to find out if it is you have this cover included in your policy. If you would like to add this cover please call our customer service helpline on 0345 300 5898.

If you would like your laptop covered away from the home you will need to select our Personal Belongings cover and you may need to specify your laptop depending on its value.

For a detailed summary of what is covered please review the HSBC Home Insurance policy booklet \(PDF, 287kb\) for full details of our Terms and Conditions (including exclusions) and our Summary of limits and excesses \(PDF, 32kb\).

Are my credit cards covered by home insurance?

If you have added Personal Belongings cover to your policy, we will cover you for up to £1,000 of fraudulent use against your credit cards and loss of up to £750 of personal money away from home.

Are golf clubs covered?

Under contents insurance we will automatically provide cover for loss of or damage to golf clubs caused by any of these events whilst in the home:

- Fire, explosion, lightning, earthquake and smoke damage
- Storm and flood damage
- Riot, civil commotion, strikes, labour and political disturbances
- Damage by malicious persons or vandals
- Collision by aircraft or other aerial devices, vehicles and animals (not including domestic pets)
- Theft or attempted theft from the home
- Falling radio and TV aerials
- Subsidence, heave or landslide
- Damage caused by falling trees or branches
- Escape of water
- Leakage of heating fuel

If you would like to be covered away from home you will need to select Personal Belongings cover.

As standard, we'll pay up to £1,500 for a single item. If you have any individual golf clubs which are worth more than £1,500 these will need to be specified.

If you are a new customer you can specify item(s) under "Sports Equipment" in the "Specified personal belongings" section on the "Your quote" page.

If you are an existing customer you can specify item(s) on your policy mid-term. Please call our customer service helpline on 0345 300 5898.

For a detailed summary of what is covered please review the HSBC Home Insurance policy booklet \(PDF, 287kb\) for full details of our Terms and Conditions (including exclusions) and our Summary of limits and excesses \(PDF, 32kb\).

Do you offer landlord insurance?

We do offer limited Landlord cover. You can apply online or if you have any questions please call our sales team on 0800 744 844 for further advice.

Do I need to specify my TV if it's worth more than £2,000?

Under contents insurance your TV is automatically covered against these events while in your home (up to the contents sum insured) and does not need to be specified:

- Fire, explosion, lightning, earthquake and smoke damage
- Storm and flood damage
- Riot, civil commotion, strikes, labour and political disturbances
- Damage by malicious persons or vandals
- Collision by aircraft or other aerial devices, vehicles and animals (not including domestic pets)
- Theft or attempted theft from the home
- Falling radio and TV aerials
- Subsidence, heave or landslide
- Damage caused by falling trees or branches
- Escape of water
- Leakage of heating fuel

Can I increase the amount of contents cover I would like?

You can increase the amount of contents cover when completing your online quote by selecting "No" to the question: "HSBC offers £50,000 standard cover for contents insurance - is this enough?"

You'll then be asked to enter the amount of contents cover that you require.

What is the difference between my buildings and my contents?

As an approximate guide, if you were to turn your home upside down, everything that fell out would be your contents, and most of what remains would be buildings.

For a detailed summary of what is covered please review the HSBC Home Insurance policy booklet \(PDF, 287kb\) for full details of our Terms and Conditions (including exclusions) and our Summary of limits and excesses \(PDF, 32kb\).

What does new for old mean?

New for old means that any items which are lost, stolen or damaged beyond repair (excluding clothing and linen) are replaced with brand new items of the same specification, removing the hassle of sourcing replacements.

Contents – Additional Cover

What is Personal Belongings cover?

Personal Belongings cover is cover for your personal items that you normally wear or carry with you (e.g. mobile phone, laptop, jewellery, camera equipment) while you are in or away from your home and extends the cover worldwide. If you wish to insure an individual personal item worth more than £1,500 it will need to be specified on your policy.

You can add Personal Belongings cover to your quote in the "Personal belongings" section on the "Your quote" page.

How much buildings insurance do I need?

Where we can we will calculate an approximate rebuild cost based on your postcode and property type and give you buildings cover up to an unlimited sum insured.

If we can't accurately assess the rebuilding cost then we'll ask you to call us and provide an estimate of how much this would cost and this will become your buildings sum insured. When estimating you need to take into consideration:

- Demolition costs
- Architect's fees
- Surveyor's fees
- Materials and labour

For more information please our sales team 0800 744 844.

Will you replace items on a "new for old" basis?

Cover is provided on a new for old basis (except for clothing and linen). We may choose to settle by one of the following methods:

Quote

Do you insure holiday homes?

We can cover holiday homes, but we cannot offer a quote online.

If you are a new customer please call our sales team on 0800 744 844 so that we can specify these items for you.

If you are an existing customer please call our customer service helpline on 0345 300 5898.

Mortgage Quotes

When do I receive my Home Insurance policy documents if I have completed a quote online that is linked with my mortgage?

We will send confirmation of your Home Insurance quote to the email address you have provided, so please keep a note of your quote reference number in case you need to contact us. Once your mortgage completes (draws down), we will send your Home Insurance policy documents by post. Please allow up to 7 working days for them to arrive. If your documents do not arrive after 7 working days, please call our customer service helpline us on 0345 300 5898.

When does my mortgage Home Insurance policy need to be in place by?

Your Solicitor will inform you when your Home Insurance needs to be in place.

- If this is on completion (draw down) of the mortgage, you will be able to link the Home Insurance and the mortgage together so they will be live at the same time. This will happen automatically.
- If this is on Exchange of Contracts the Solicitor will instruct you of the date it needs to be live. You will not be able to link it to your mortgage and will have to either call our sales team on 0800 744 844, or complete a quote online to activate the policy on the date required.

Can I get a quote for my Home Insurance that is linked to my new mortgage?

We are able to offer new HSBC mortgage customers the option to quote online for their Home Insurance policy, which will automatically start at the same time as their mortgage completes (draws down).

For more information please call our sales team 0800 744 844.

What if I want my Home Insurance to go live on Exchange of Contracts rather than completion (draw down)?

If you require Home Insurance cover on Exchange of Contracts you will not be able to link the mortgage and the Home Insurance together. You will have to start the policy on the date given by the Solicitor by activating the policy online by completing the quote with the given start date, or calling our sales team on 0800 744 844.

What happens if my circumstances change before my mortgage completes (draws down) and I need to make changes to my mortgage quote?

Please call our sales team on 0800 744 844.
